

JG (Jungoo) Lee

Vice-President - Samsung Techwin, Korea

- 1989 - 1991 Relocated from Korea to undertake MBA at Bond University, attracted by advanced IT facilities, world-class academics, excellent teaching and a great outdoor environment.
- 1991 Faculty staff helped to launch career by assisting with resume preparation and arranging first job interview with an Australian consulting firm, which led to various positions with major organisations, including the Australian Trade Commission.
- 2000 Appointed Chief Consultant of Chubb Asia Pacific, based in Sydney.
- 2001 Returned to Seoul as Managing Director of Chubb, Korea.
- 2004 Recruited as Regional General Manager of Honeywell Building solutions, Korea.
- 2010 - 2012 Appointed Vice-President of Samsung Techwin, responsible for solutions, business development, new business planning and an international team.

MBA
Alumnus